1 Introduction

1.1 The Focus of the Evaluation

A school self-evaluation of teaching and learning in Scoil an Chlochair was undertaken during the period September 2013 to June 2014. During the evaluation teaching and learning in the following curriculum areas were evaluated:

Literacy : teaching and learning- pupil outcomes – Reading for pleasure

1.2 School Context

Scoil an Chlochair, Kilbeggan is a mixed vertical single stream primary school with 232 pupils and 12 teachers. The school is wholly located on the property of the Sisters of Mercy and as such shares with the campus with the Mercy Secondary School. The children of Scoil an Chlochair are located in three separate buildings two of which are prefabs. Building work commenced in July 2014 in order to replace some of the prefabs with a permanent structure. Class sizes range in number from 23 to 31 and with five classes having more than 28 children. Approximately 20% of the children are from Newcomer families and are from mainly Polish and Brazilian backgrounds.

Planning and self-evaluation have played an increasingly central part of our staff and BOM meetings. At each teachers meeting we focus on our Plean Scoile and review curriculum and other policies. These are then presented to the Board of Management for ratification and implementation.

2 The Findings

We are using a variety of tools and methodologies to evaluate our school: 2013 WSE inspection report; teacher discussion; observation of children; testing both class and standardised ; questionnaires

3 Progress made on previously-identified improvement targets

- Mathematics – problem solving being addressed in each class. Children are becoming more familiar with the processes involved in problem solving.

As a staff we reviewed all aspects of school life (teacher questionnaire as above) and we have concentrated on the following areas:

- As part of our review in English the school has purchased The Primary Planet Newspaper for children in Senior Classes. This is a newspaper which deals with current issues for children.
